

Homeschool HIP descriptions for Children's Museum 2011/2012

- Second Weds. of the month
- 12:30pm-3:30pm
- 3 hour workshop
- Members $3/person for supplies fee
- Non-members $8/person includes admission and supplies fee
- Includes hands-on classroom program (30-45 minutes.), planetarium show, and museum exhibits

- Oct. 12      Chemistry Day-Learn the basics of chemistry from the structures of atoms to creating your own silly putty.
- Nov. 9      Native American Heritage Day-Explore the world of the Native Americans with a close-up look at artifacts, regalia (clothing) and instruments.
- Dec.14      World Cultures-learn about 4 different world cultures. Explore artifacts and hear stories about these countries and their people.
- Jan. 11      Building Blocks for Learning-discover how math plays an important role in buildings and their structure. Build your own structures with wooden blocks, Legos, and much more.
- Feb. 8      Stories from the past:-explore the world of the written word as we share different books and stories from the past. See first hand some books that are over 200 years old and a story that was made into a planetarium show.
- March 14      Weather or Not Dr. Seuss-read the story Bartholomew and the Oobleck by Dr. Seuss and discover how weather plays an important role in this book.
- April 11      Science Fiction Day-Who is Yoda? Does a light saber really work? Can we travel to different galaxies or stars? Join us as we explore these ideas and many more.
- May 9      Sports Science- Do you know how fast you can throw a baseball? Can you make that dunk shot? Explore the wide world of sports and the science that makes it all happen.